

SOCIETY

GEN. AND MRS. JOHNSON'S DINNER

Complimenting Brig-Gen. Robert K. Johnson, commanding the Hawaiian Department, and Mrs. Johnson, and also Maj. Matthew De Laney, a dinner of unusual brilliancy was given last night at the Seaside hotel. Brig-Gen. Samuel I. Johnson, N. G. H., and Mrs. Johnson were host and hostess.

The large square table at which the guests were seated had an unusual centerpiece in a large market-basket filled with dahlias in many shades, hydrangeas, ferns and other greenery. Smaller baskets were similarly arranged. Tulle in browns, golds, greens, cerise, pinks and reds was used in a charming manner. The name cards were of deep-toned ivory with the Johnson monogram in raised gold letters. A stringed orchestra furnished music throughout the dinner and during the evening gave opportunity for those wishing to dance. After dinner the magician, Brooks, who has been a great attraction at the Bitou, entertained the guests for a couple of hours. Gen. Johnson, who himself is clever at card tricks, did a few "stunts."

The guests were Governor Lucius E. Pinkham, Brig-Gen. and Mrs. Robert K. Evans, Col. and Mrs. Daniel Howell, Col. and Mrs. Benjamin W. Atkinson, Col. and Mrs. James B. Houston, Col. and Mrs. Alfred M. Hunter, Lieut.-Cmdr. Victor Houston of the St. Louis, Col. and Mrs. R. R. Raymond, Mrs. Charles Bryant Cooper, Mrs. Frank E. Thompson, Mrs. Olaf Sorenson, Mrs. Clinton M. Hunter, Miss Bertha Ben Taylor, Maj. William Weigel, Maj. Matthew A. De Laney, Maj. Lawrence Redington and Capt. Hornsby Evans.

COMINGS AND GOINGS OF THE SMART SET

Mr. H. H. Walker has gone for a two weeks' trip to Hawaii and Maui.

Mrs. Olaf Van Pooie is the house guest of Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse during Maj. Van Pooie's absence at the Mexican border where he said several other service medicines have been ordered.

Miss Psyche Berry, whose picture is in this issue and whose engagement to Mr. Frank B. Cogrove was recently announced, is a very charming island girl. She has always been a great favorite here.

Miss Katie Singlehurst was hostess at a very jolly picnic at the Peninsula on Thursday. About 30 young folks had a delightful day in the country.

Admiral and Mrs. Clifford Boush are entertaining for Brig-Gen. and Mrs. Robert K. Evans on Monday evening at the naval station, Pearl Harbor.

Mrs. Wallace R. Farrington, Miss Ruth Farrington and Miss Frances Farrington have gone to Wailua to spend a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewers have gone to Haleiwa for a month's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Prescott leave next week for a three months' visit on the mainland.

Mrs. E. W. Jordan is entertaining next week with a large tea honoring her daughter, Mrs. Allison Jordan, who is here with her husband and children. Mrs. Jordan, as May Hart, was a leader in Honolulu's smart set.

Mrs. Samuel I. Johnson, wife of Brig-Gen. Johnson, N. G. H., and an active and hospitable hostess. Gen. and Mrs. Johnson gave one of the largest affairs of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason F. Prosser were home-coming passengers a few days ago after a delightful couple of months on the mainland. Mrs. Prosser's niece, Miss Marjory Thatcher, accompanied them and will be their house-guest for a year.

Mrs. Margaret Roth, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Clifford B. High, leaves next week for a short mainland visit.

Mrs. Henry F. Danion, Miss Esme Damon, Miss H. Damon and Master R. Damon left on Wednesday's steamer for Hilo.

Dr. Eleanor Arthur and Mrs. L. P. Colburn were volcano-bound passengers on Wednesday's steamer.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Graham left the Mauna on Tuesday after a trip to San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wood are booked as home-coming passengers on the Mauna next Tuesday.

Mrs. L. S. D. Spoor and Miss Louise Spoor, who have been visiting Honolulu, leave on next Wednesday's steamer. The Spoors are "kamaianas," having lived here 25 years ago.

Rev. and Mrs. Lemuel Harris Wells will leave for their eastern home on a 15th of this month after a much-njoyed visit to Honolulu. Next week they are to be the house-guests of Mrs. Agnes Judd. The Wells are childhood friends of Mrs. Judd and through the years they have kept up correspondence and now have anticipated the pleasure of this reunion. Rev. Mr. Wells will preach at the 11 o'clock service of the St. Andrew's cathedral and in the evening at the Chinese Episcopal church.

Mrs. Agnes Judd will take her houseguests, Rev. and Mrs. L. H. Wells, to the Judd country home on Windward Oahu next week for a few days.

Mrs. L. S. D. Spoor and Miss Louise Spoor are guests at Mrs. Gray's at Waikiki until their departure next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pillingham are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Adams at their Diamond Head home.

Mrs. M. J. Nixon and Miss Jane Nixon of Jackson, Cal., are enjoying their visit in Honolulu. They are guests at The Courtland.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Larimer will be arrivals on the Mauna. Mrs. Larimer comes to Honolulu a bride.

Mrs. Lester, who for the past year has taught dancing in Honolulu, will leave on the Mauna on August 18 for her home in Victoria, B. C., where she will take a well-earned rest, returned October 1 with many new dances. During Madame Lester's absence her capable dancing partner, Mr. Chris. Ransford, will continue to hold classes and give private lessons in the I. O. O. F. hall.

Mrs. Helen Nopman is chaperoning Miss Lois Brainerd, Miss Alice Harriss, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Mary Lucas and Miss Wilhelmina Tenney for a visit on the island of Maui. They had planned going to the Volcano house but the place is overflowing with guests just now and so this party of young people will go there later on when there is room.

Mrs. George K. French and Miss Coney have gone over to Haleakala for a week's visit.

Dainty boxes of flowers are finding their way to Mrs. Edward M. Watson, who was unfortunate enough to break her forearm while playing tennis on the Neighborhood Club courts.

Mrs. Charles P. Durney, wife of Dr. Durney of Maui, will be here on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Betty Case and Miss Harriet Hatch have been on Tantalus for a week, the guests of Miss Nora F. Sanzy.

Mrs. William Munter and Little Barbara left on Friday afternoon for San Francisco, where they will be met by Lieut. Munter, who has been on the mainland for some time. After a three months' vacation Lieut. Munter will go to his new post of duty.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould left on Thursday on the steamer Maui for the island of Kauai, to be house-guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Coney. A large luau for 300 guests has been planned for Saturday night in their honor. Mr. Coney is Mrs. Gould's uncle. They plan to be gone two weeks.

The Hocking family came over from their summer place on the other side of the island to bid farewell to Mrs. William Munter, who sailed on the transport Friday. They return to the other side on Sunday to remain until the first of September.

Mrs. Walter Macfarlane and all of the children have gone to the Volcano House for a month's vacation. They have taken the large cottage at the Volcano House and their large touring car and plan a delightful outing.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Cunha, Miss Anne Gilliland and Master Clarence Murray have gone to the Volcano House for a month's vacation.

Mrs. Irene Holloway and Mrs. Kate Sperry have gone to the Volcano House for a 10-day trip. On their return they will stop at Maui and "do" Haleakala.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould were the week-end guests of the Harold Billings at their peninsula summer home.

Mrs. Harold Castle is on Kauai now, the guest of Mrs. Catherine Bodrero. Mrs. Sonni is also a guest in this household.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick D. Chandler of 1223 Kewalo street are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John Drew are at Kahala, occupying the Whitehouse place. They have as their guests Mr. Charles Drey and Mr. Fred Lyser.

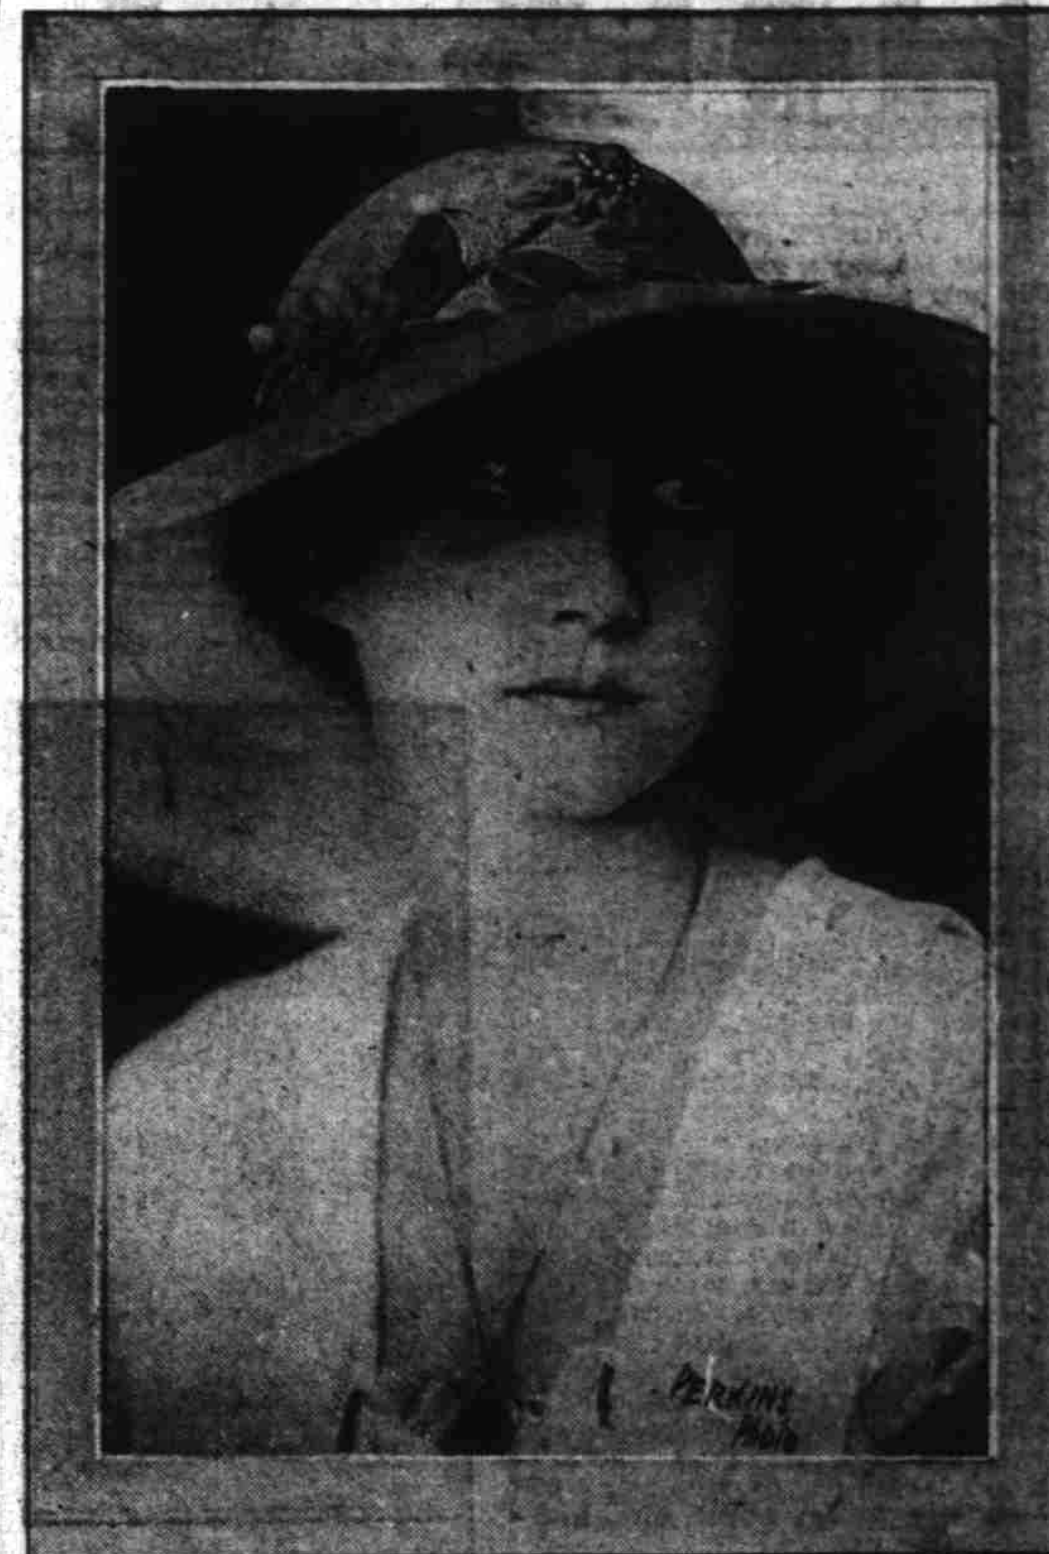

Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Schaefer are still at the "Penny Peck" Kahala place, where they have been entertaining their friends in their usual hospitable way.

Mr. Tom Church and Miss Helen Church have gone to San Francisco for a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Morse are out at Kahala for the month of August.

Miss Rust is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Johnson at Mauna.

Mrs. F. E. Blake and her daughters,

Mrs. H. P. Agge, whose fame as a writer of short stories and novels is steadily growing. This picture will be used by her publishers this winter in connection with a forthcoming book.

Mr. and Mrs. John Drew are at Kahala, occupying the Whitehouse place. They have as their guests Mr. Charles Drey and Mr. Fred Lyser.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Morse are out at Kahala for the month of August.

Miss Rust is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Johnson at Mauna.

Mrs. F. E. Blake and her daughters,

"Quality First"

New Arrivals Sport and Motor Hats

Smart Styles and Popular Prices

$1.50 to $3.00

TUB SILKS.

in Fancy Stripes and plain white, 36 in. wide.
$1.35 to $2.00 Yard

SOCIETY SATIN

in Mais, Flesh Pink, Light Blue and White.

High Grade Bathing Suits

Taffetas and Jersey Silks in Black and Colors.

Whitney & Marsh, Ltd.

1045 Fort Street

Tel. 1725

SACHS'

Biggest August

CLEARANCE SALE

continues next week. Read all Papers for advertising.
Visit the store early every day.

WE have just received a new line of Gabardine and Pique Skirts, and Smocks in linen and light summer fabrics.

Jeffs

Fort and Beretania

Misses' and Children's Dresses for School.
Sizes 6 to 16 years.